

Not just

The Investment Banking Deal Competition on Campus

The Deal is a competition for students who are interested in investment banking. It is a fun, challenging, and rewarding experience that will help you stand out in the market.

As a member of a team of 3-5 members and assume the role of the Executive Vice President for the Public Product Division of a publicly listed consumer product company of your team's choice.

Without prior experience, we can help you gain valuable insight that you have the resilience we look for and prove academic excellence with strong quantitative skills, but it's rewarding. Successful participants will be rewarded with a final interview for an Investment Banking Summer Internship position in Asia.

Registration closes: June 2, 2013

Visit our website to register and learn about the rules and eligibility criteria for this competition.

jpmorgan.com/thedeal